We are honored to introduce the PGA Learning Centers - China

PacificPine Sports is an official partner of the PGA of America and operates PGA Learning Centers and Golf Academies in Greater China.

Our certified coaches, cutting-edge technology, coach training and development programs provide instructors a platform to train students and develop personally.

Instructional programs range from beginners to elite, including private lessons, group training, camps, overseas trips and full-time boarding programs.

Instructional programs are complemented with a competitive pathway including PGA Junior Series tournaments along with the AJGA International Pathway Series providing students an excellent developmental pathway.

PGA of AMERICA

"LEADING THE GAME FOR 100 YEARS"

The PGA of America is proud to be recognized as a global leader in the teaching, business, and playing of the game.

- ❑ Largest working sports organization with 29,000 members operating over 10,000 facilities
- ❑ Unprecedented investment in education annual spending $10+ million USD to equip our members with the best tools and resources
- ❑ Manages 4 of golf's biggest events in the Ryder Cup, PGA Championship, KPMG Women's PGA Championship and Senior Kitchen Aid PGA Championship
- ❑ Record of innovating player development programs such as PGA Coach & PGA Jr. League

TEAM

Our team is led by CEO Raymond Roessel, PGA and COO Patrick Quernemoen, PGA. Both have extensive experience in Greater China building and managing golf businesses in golf instruction, tournaments, and golf club management.

PGA Learning Centers – China employs over sixty internationally-certified PGA and local Chinese-certified coaches. Coaches are furthered trained by our Director of Golf, Kevin Smeltz, through monthly training and our internal certification program. Kevin is passionate about developing Chinese youth, amateurs and professionals and has a long list of PGA Tour, LPGA and Champions Tour professional students.

CAREER ADVANCEMENT

The goal at the PGA Learning Centers-China is to continue to develop associates via our various training programs. All coaches complete an internal coach certification program, providing team members with a deeper knowledge of the golf swing and coaching methodology. Through the PGA of America partnership, coaches have the opportunity to gain membership to this prestigious organization.

PacificPine Sports Coach Certification

The PacificPine Sports Coach Certification program takes team members through not only the swing but also many in-depth topics on training and practice methods. This program will motivate and challenge coaches to learn as a coach and continue to develop their teaching.

PGA of America Membership

Through our unique partnership, coaches have the ability to attain PGA of America membership and become a PGA Class "A" Members. This program is centered on teaching and coaching with golf management, tournament management, and other subjects to develop a well rounded golf career.
