

Farmington Country Club Job Description

Job Title: Player Development Specialist
Department: Golf Operations
Reports To: Director of Instruction
Supervises:

Job Summary:

The Player Development Specialist is responsible for executing the vision of the Director of Instruction. Commit to enhancing the member experience through golf coaching, Club Fitting and programming. Assist in planning, promotion and implementation of all activities within the performance center.

Responsibilities:

- Manage ALL technology with Director of Instruction.
- Coordinate Member Events and Parties at Performance Center
- Assist in coordinating fitting days
- Practice facility daily maintenance and coordination
- Assist Teaching Professional in Junior Golf
- Manage Club Fitting
- Assist in scheduling with Director of Instruction
- Assist in grip ordering and replacement, hard good special orders.

Qualifications:

- PGA Associate
- Minimum of three years of similar experience in the golf business
- Working knowledge of Microsoft software applications (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint, Publisher)
- Bachelor's Degree in Sports and Recreation Management, Business Management, or related field preferred

Compensation & Benefits

- Hourly Wage
- 55% of all personal coaching and club fitting fees. Hourly rate dependent on experience.
- Housing through Farmington Country Club at $100 per week automatically withdrawn from paycheck. Rent is all inclusive.
- PGA Dues Paid
- Weekly Mentorship and development meetings with Director of Instruction
- Full playing privileges and access to facilities for practice
- Flexible Scheduling for PGA and Professional Events.